Maine Street Design Look Book

Maine Street Design Co. is keenly able to work with you in your own surroundings, to develop and interpret a space that compliments your individual needs.

The use of both natural and artificial light, understanding space, design, architecture, color and texture making each project unique and special.

Maine Street Design Co. has forged close working relationships with New England artisans; furniture and cabinet makers, metal workers, upholsterers, and specialty painters. Bringing together these incredible craftspeople and trades sparks a truly special finished project.

Our unique furniture, fabric, flooring and drapery resources are an important part of the mission.

Maine Street Design Look Book

Maine Street Design Co. is deeply rooted in Maine and its traditions. Brett Johnson's designs utilize natural fibers, reclaimed wood and foraged finds, most of which are sourced in New England.

A native Mainer, Brett has an innate understanding of local traditions and what attracts people to our rich and varied state.

Weaving together the clients' vision with a design philosophy that honors spaces that are lived in, Maine Street Design Co. incorporates traditional Maine elements into new classic interiors.

"Bringing rooms to life is what Brett Johnson does best."

Rooms that invite us in.

That's what we look for in our homes.
